

Donkey Show X, "Mule Tide Cheer," drew a full house last weekend at RecordBar in Westport.

The variety show, produced by Bill Sundahl and Spice of Life Productions, offered up music and mayhem for all.

This was the 10th Donkey Show, a one-of-a-kind event held occasionally at Kansas City music venues.

Scenes from the stage (clockwise from top):

Hee haw! Jamie Searle, lead singer for local band It's Over, put aside his guitar to be the show's mascot mule.

Eric Price, with "Magic at Hand," ropes in the crowd with his sleight of hand.

Bill Hargrave, aka Jazzbo, puts on his one-man show.

Cody Wyoming performs for the crowd with his band, the Moniter.

PHOTO
DONK

SUSAN PFANNMULLER/Special to The Star

